

The Leader in Real Estate Industry Recruitment

Successful Global Placements | Large Database of Real Estate Talents

WiseNet Asia is a one-stop human resources provider (HR) headquartered in Singapore. Our core strength is executive search and confidential search for mid to senior management positions, and recruitment with HR consulting for companies setting up and expanding in Singapore and China. Executive search is complimented by other HR services that encompass talent transition, talent development, HR outsourcing, internship programs and consulting.

Since 2011, Wisenet Asia have been placing senior management job candidates in the real estate and infrastructure sectors in Singapore, China, and other global locations. Over the years, our customer base has grown from local multinationals to other regional and international real estate developers, REIT and real estate private funds. We are focused on helping clients to build their talent base through innovative HR models and knowledge sharing.

Dedicated Real Estate Recruiters

Our talent search team consists of highly dedicated consultants who are passionate about identifying and building mid to senior leadership teams for our clients.

From the initial phase of working alongside clients and discovering key talent gaps including talent mapping, to innovative methods of uncovering suitable talents for the role, right down to managing expectations in salary negotiation - we make sure clients are updated timely at all stages of the search process.

We add value to clients through our professional insights and customised solutions in senior talent management. Together, we create meaningful relationships through transparent communication, fostering stronger bonds in the long run.
